

1. To manufacture all kind of parts from Aluminium, parts made from Aluminium for automobile which will be used for industrial in order to sell, distribute and export
2. To manufacture and assemble parts of vehicle, electric vehicle, train, car, aircraft, robot including all kind of engine for sale, distribution and export
3. To manufacture medical equipment and all kind of tool which related to medical for sale, distribution and export
4. To manufacture all kind of part and equipment of electronics which will be used for industrial in order to sell, distribute and export
5. To assembly of parts made from Aluminium which used for each productions process of the Company in order for sale, distribution and export
6. To manufacture, provides, purchase, import of raw materials, equipment, parts of mould to be used in production of such part.
7. To possess, lease, lease out, hire-purchase, sell and exchange of land and other immovable property for use in its business operation provided that such guaranteeing is not commercially done.
8. To agree and being contractual party with private organization, government agencies in compliance with the Company's objectives.
9. To engage in business of being a broker, agency, commission agency on behalf of natural person or juristic person, domestic and abroad, for all type of business transaction except for insurance business, association member recruitment, and security trading.
10. To provide loan to any person in relation to the company's business with reasonable security deposit is assigned, except capital investment business, and credit foncier.
11. To borrow money and issue commercial bill and other instrument of debt and obligation from time to time in order to achieve company's legal business objectives; and mortgage, pledge or create charge on the company's property, right, privilege and assets in whole or partial including unpaid amount of share; in order to secure the performance of said debt.
12. To become a limited liability partners in other partnership, and to become a shareholder in any other limited company both in Thailand or abroad regardless of said partnership or company's business objectives.
13. To contact with government sector, local government, local government office, officer or any other authority in order to obtain right, title, license, concession or any other privilege that are required by law for the operation of its business objectives.

14. To guarantee loan, liability and contractual performance of natural person or juristic person, including guarantee immigrating or emigrating persons in accordance with immigration law and revenue law and other law, provided that such guaranteeing is not commercially done.
15. To set up its branch or office of representative in Thailand or anywhere on this world.
16. The company has right to issue its shares and sell them at the price higher than their par value.
17. The Company is entitled to issue or offer to sell securities (with or without conversion right of ordinary share) to people at the fixed price fixed and แล้ะ announcement that issues said laws as well as laws and regulation which is currently enforced or at higher price or lower price which fixed by Public Company Limited laws and Stock market and securities laws